PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION OF WISCONSIN

Application of IM Telecom, LLC, for Designation as an Eligible
Telecommunications Carrier

9694-TI-100

CORRECTION ORDER

On May 24, 2016, the Commission issued a Final Decision designating IM Telecom, LLC, d/b/a Infiniti Mobile (Infiniti Mobile), as an Eligible Telecommunications Carrier (ETC) for the purpose of receiving Universal Service Fund (USF) support for low income programs. (PSC REF#: 286464).

The Final Decision requires a correction, specified below, that corrects a typographic error and does not change the substance of the Final Decision. The correction, authorized by Wis. Stat. § 196.39(4) if made within 30 days of service of the Final Decision, is as follows:

Finding of Fact number five, on page two of the Final Decision, reads:

5. It is reasonable and in the public interest to designate Infiniti Mobile as an ETC for the purpose of receiving Lifeline support in the Park Falls exchange, as indicated in its application and consistent with this Final Decision.

Finding of Fact number five is corrected to read:

5. It is reasonable and in the public interest to designate Infiniti Mobile as an ETC for the purpose of receiving Lifeline support in the exchange listed in its application and consistent with this Final Decision.

Docket 9694-TI-100

The revised language is consistent with the language used throughout the order, which refers to the exchanges listed in the application. This correction has no effect on the intent of the Final Decision or the effective date.

All other terms and conditions of the Final Decision are unchanged.

Dated at Madison, Wisconsin, June 16, 2016.

NOTICE OF RIGHTS FOR REHEARING OR JUDICIAL REVIEW, THE TIMES ALLOWED FOR EACH, AND THE IDENTIFICATION OF THE PARTY TO BE NAMED AS RESPONDENT

The following notice is served on you as part of the Commission's written decision. This general notice is for the purpose of ensuring compliance with Wis. Stat. § 227.48(2), and does not constitute a conclusion or admission that any particular party or person is necessarily aggrieved or that any particular decision or order is final or judicially reviewable.

PETITION FOR REHEARING

If this decision is an order following a contested case proceeding as defined in Wis. Stat. § 227.01(3), a person aggrieved by the decision has a right to petition the Commission for rehearing within 20 days of the date of service of this decision, as provided in Wis. Stat. § 227.49. The date of service is shown on the first page. If there is no date on the first page, the date of service is shown immediately above the signature line. The petition for rehearing must be filed with the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin and served on the parties. An appeal of this decision may also be taken directly to circuit court through the filing of a petition for judicial review. It is not necessary to first petition for rehearing.

PETITION FOR JUDICIAL REVIEW

A person aggrieved by this decision has a right to petition for judicial review as provided in Wis. Stat. § 227.53. In a contested case, the petition must be filed in circuit court and served upon the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin within 30 days of the date of service of this decision if there has been no petition for rehearing. If a timely petition for rehearing has been filed, the petition for judicial review must be filed within 30 days of the date of service of the order finally disposing of the petition for rehearing, or within 30 days after the final disposition of the petition for rehearing by operation of law pursuant to Wis. Stat. § 227.49(5), whichever is sooner. If an untimely petition for rehearing is filed, the 30-day period to petition for judicial review commences the date the Commission serves its original decision.¹ The Public Service Commission of Wisconsin must be named as respondent in the petition for judicial review.

If this decision is an order denying rehearing, a person aggrieved who wishes to appeal must seek judicial review rather than rehearing. A second petition for rehearing is not permitted.
