

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

October 8, 2014

Contact: Nathan Conrad, 608-266-9600

Nathan.Conrad@wisconsin.gov

PSC's Public Hearing for the Madison Gas & Electric Rate Case

Attendees Urged to Carpool, Use Public Transportation, or Submit Written Comments

[Madison, Wis.] – Tomorrow, October 9, 2014, at 9:30 AM, the Public Service Commission of Wisconsin will host a Public Hearing on the proposed Madison Gas & Electric rate case (Docket 3270-UR-120). In anticipation of a large turn out of attendance and interest from the public the Commission would like to remind all those interested in attending this Public Hearing that parking is very sparse and limited at the Public Service Commission building located at 610 N. Whitney Way, Madison, WI 53705.

The Commission highly encourages individuals and groups interested in taking part in the Public Hearing to carpool, utilize public transportation or charter buses in order to accommodate large groups who may wish to travel together to make their comments part of the official record in this case.

For those interested individuals who cannot be a part of the Public Hearing, but would still like to make a comment on the official record, please click the link below to ensure that your comment is included:

http://psc.wi.gov/apps40/ERF_public/comment/fileComment.aspx?util=3270&case=UR&num=120

Ample street parking is available off of Whitney Way and staff will be on hand to help direct individuals to the very limited amount of visitor parking on hand at the Public Service Commission building.

###